The University Of Maryland Eastern Shore . . .

. . . A Little Slice Of The World

The diverse climate, the colorful, landscape, the classic & modern architecture, the cultural variety. UMES is a microcosm of the "real" world, an intertwining of different people, ideas, goals, and lifestyles as there are anywhere in the world.

Our little world exists to help us excel academically, socially, and spiritually. As we mature we are better able to serve humanity and make a positive impact on society.

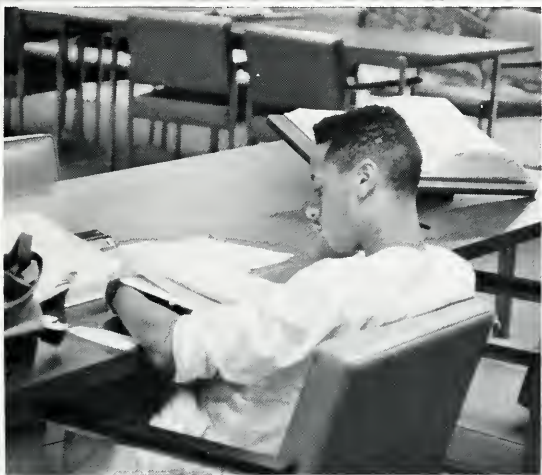

But before we embark on to our professional lives of toil, fame, and glory lets take time out to reflect on the collegiate year 1988-89, "UMES" style.

Between the raindrops and the Ella Fitzgerald Center for the Performing Arts.

Hey! UMES People . . .

. . . Let's Get Busy!

President Of The University Of Maryland Eastern Shore

As UMES moves a step closer to the '90's Dr. Hytche continues to lead his colleagues and students towards efficiency and success.

His personable personality is a trademark of his humanity and genuine concern for others. His knowledge and experience are trademarks of his intelligence. Dr. Hytche is a great inspiration to all that have passed through the ranks of UMES and all that have come to know him.

Her Majesty

In all her regal splendor, Colette Maria Johnson is the younger of two children born to Eva and Robert Johnson.

Johnson, a business administration major, plans on working for the federal government upon graduation. A new initiate of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc., Johnson exhibits grace and style with modesty. She definitely promotes herself as a positive, intelligent young lady.

Her motto is, "Have respect for yourself and always strive for success." Colette certainly is a grand choice worthy of a celebration fit for a queen!

Theresa Hicks shows great form during a serve.

Lady Hawk Volleyball

Take that!

The team's leading hitter, Ira "dude" Smith, pulls up to third with an easy stand up triple.

At the beginning of the season, the UMES baseball team was picked by many to win the conference title. However, the team finished fourth in the MEAC championships. Despite the showing in the championship, it was an improvement over the last four years. The '89 team ended up 7-5 in the conference and 12-17 overall.

John Fritts awaits the next pitch.

Hawk Baseball

Chris Pagan holds a runner on first base.

Hawk Basketball

Bottom, Terry Barge, Demetrius Jones, Sean Salisbury, Antoine Powell, Victor Ford, Keith Williams, Michael Dobbs. 2nd row, Harold Lane, Sherwin Turner, Michael Kirkland, Jose Sandoval, Leroy Crippin, Larry Stokes.

Oww! that wasn't nice.

What is this, wrestlemania?!

Two points, thank you.

Watch me fly y'all!

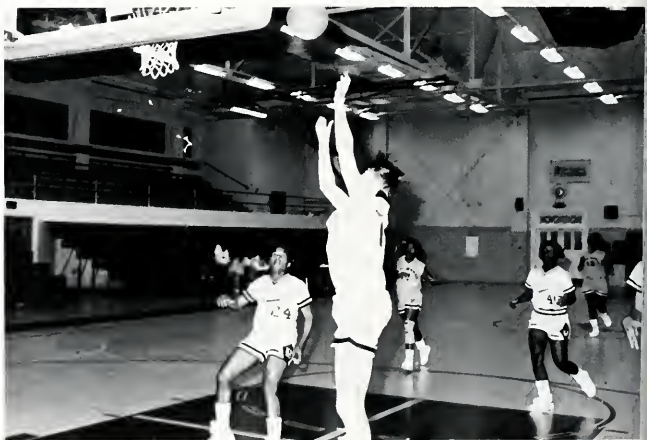

I should make this one!

Did you see the move I put on her?

Help! I'm being mugged!

Easy hoop for me.

ENTERTAINMENT AND EVENTS

UMES

The saxophone section takes a break while the trumpet players take the lead. Band leader Jake DeBose directs the tunes, while Jackie Collins concentrates.

Band

Let's blow the roof off of this place. C'mon, and a one, and a two . . .

Jazz

... The beat goes on. Sweet music to the ears. At left Mr. Lamkin attempts to change the pace.

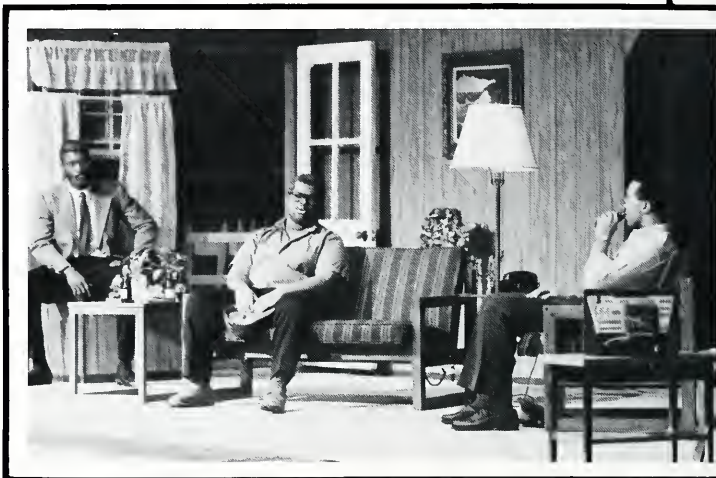

... In Tune!

The jazz band is called upon to play at many campus events, which include coronation, basketball games, graduation, dinner theater, etc. That, along with off-campus concerts, keeps these young men and women very busy, but they never miss a note!

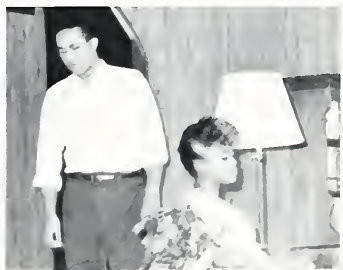

UMES

Above, high drama is in action as characters from the fall play, Zooman and Sign discuss the sorrow of a murder in the family, a young girl slain by Zooman.

Present . . .

The grieving parents, played by Veronica Palmer and Steve Walls, comfort each other over the loss of their daughter. Left, cast characters acknowledge the audience during the curtain call.

Drama Society

Trying to catch Zooman, above right, becomes the chief topic of the neighborhood. Tony "Zooman" Audrey, finds time to glance over the script in the dressing room.

Zooman And The Sign

At the climax, Zooman is shot while trying to break in the home of the parents of the slain girl. Left, make-up artists do their thing.

Spring

Many students turned out for the fashion display given during the week of Spring Festival. The models were like the weather on this day . . . HOT!

Fashion

The men get into the action. Strolling ever saue, not to be out done by the ladies, left.

Festival

Smart swimwear leaves just enough to the imagination; i'm sure the admiring follower of this trio will agree.

Show

This group is simply silky smooth during this hollywood pose. Over all it was a fashion fair with flair and very well done.

Calender Girl Pageant '89

Brains And Beauty

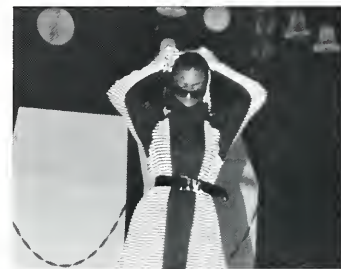

Michele Semple definately is alluring in a sexy swimsuit that earned her high marks in the competition. At left Theresa Hicks strolls up the runway in style.

Swimwear And Fashion . . .

Rhonda Cardwell, above shows off a hot swimsuit that is bound to attract much attention on the beach, while Michele Semple and Lisa Gravely sport less revealing, but equally provocative gear.

Sophisticated And Sassy!

Hillary Barksdale uses her smile and stunning paisley pants to the delight of the audience, as Anita Hazzard and Tamiko Thompson do much of the same.

Star Search '89

... Where The Student Becomes The Star.

Tink and the boys grind out one of their familiar and funky go-go tunes. The group got the UMES posse up on their feet and rockin' to the call and answer rap style of Kevin Sims. Star Search featured singers, spokesmodels, comedians, and more!

Dinner Theater '89

The jovial atmosphere surrounding Dinner Theater allows these two performers to take a breather between acts. Flashing a winning smile and performing just as well is a student worker of the Hotel and Restaurant Management program.

A Journey To New Orleans.

Above Carol Spencer entertains during the risqué 'Big Spender' scene, while HRM students are content to remain behind the scene before they are called into action.

Honors Convocation

The occasion honors those students who have attained a grade point average of 3.5 or greater. Above Catrice Vandross receives her citation for scholastic excellence.

Art Exhibit

Award winning photographer Moneta Sleet Jr. shares his prowess in the Arts & Tech Building. Mr. Kenneth Rogers exposes his views of the works, for the rest it's wine and cheese time.

Visits To Our Campus . . .

Above Congressman Roy Dyson D-Maryland, discusses politics with two very attentive co-eds. Also speaking on the political mode is Gov. William Schaefer who addresses the campus outside of Harford Hall. President Hytche meets with former Baltimore Colt, Lenny Moore.

. . . Broaden Our Horizons.

President Hytche meets with several Asian diplomats to discuss educational objectives. Educational provisions are always of primary interest to Hytche and our many visitors.

Hey, That Looks Like Fun!

A Dedication

The 1988-89 edition of the "Hawk Yearbook" is dedicated to the brilliant ladies of the freshman class. This energetic group of young ladies showed initiative and concern to an inexperienced and "undermanned" staff that included only two males other than myself. All of these ladies are leaders of tomorrow and without them this yearbook would have been mission impossible.

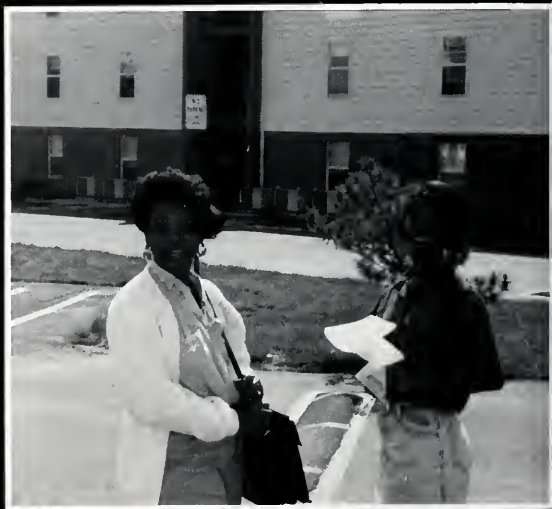

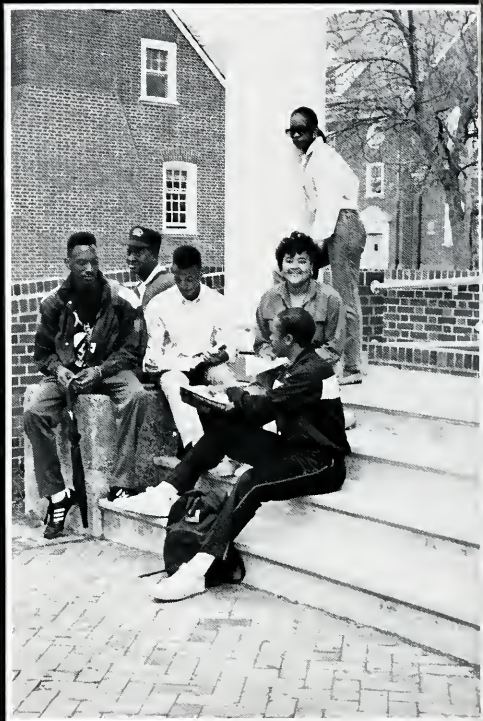

To the ladies of the class of '92 I appreciate your time and effort on this project. I like many of you were inexperienced, but we overcame our adversity and did it in half a semester—your efforts are to be commended.

I would also like to acknowledge the "veteran" Mikki Semple. I couldn't have done it without ya kid! Thank you Melanie, Valerie, Nicole, Kevin, Jewel, Craig, Mr. White, and everyone else who helped. Keep up the good work! Peace.

Dear Dr. Hytche:

Thanks so very much for sharing with me information relative to Chancellor Toll's memorandum concerning the Thursday, May 4, 1989, meeting of the Committee on Finance of the Board of Regents.

As President of the Student Government Association, I wish the Board of Regents to know that students on our campus feel strongly about the issue of divestment of funds from the Common Trust Fund of the University of Maryland System in equities of firms doing business in South Africa.

I am forwarding a petition which was circulated on our campus and has been signed by over 500 students who are currently enrolled. These signatures were secured rather hurriedly, and I am convinced that many more could have been collected had there been more time. I believe there are enough signatures to register the outrage we feel as a result of our University's failure to completely divest its funds in equities of firms doing business in South Africa.

Please forward this to Chancellor Toll and express thanks to him and the Board of Regents for affording us the opportunity to address the Board of Regents in this fashion. We only hope that our voices are heard and that the Board will see fit to take appropriate action.

Sincerely,

Kevin Turner
President
Student Government Association

P.S. The Board of Regents did see fit to take appropriate action. On May 4th, 1989 the committee on finance of the Board of Regents voted unanimously to divest funds from South Africa. And on July 7th, 1989, the entire Board of Regents voted to completely divest its funds from the racist apartheid government. A very important day in our university's history.

To Thee, Dear Alma Mater
We raise our grateful song,
For through thy noble teachings
Thou has made thy children strong;
And thousands still shall praise thee. All earth shall hear their swell, and bind our hearts yet closer to thee we love well.

Maryland, Maryland, home of Maroon
and Gray
Maryland, Maryland, thee we will love always.
All hail to thee fair Maryland,
All Glory be to thee!
Grow thou in strength and honor
Through all eternity!

We love thy spacious campus
We love thy tow'ring halls,
and hallow'd are the lessons
we've learn'ed within thy walls. Stand thou forever glorious, full-rob'd in living green; shine thou in endless splendor beneath thy trees serene.
